

Parent Bulletin

15.09.23

Dear Parents/Carers,

As our second school week together draws to a close, I am again proud of what our learning community has achieved. This week I met with the Student Leadership Team for the first time since my interview. Working with such enthusiastic young people, I am optimistic about not only our future as a school, but also for the country as a whole. They spoke to me passionately about their involvement in day to day school life and represented the voice of their peers maturely and at times, ferociously. I thank them for their time and commitment and I look forward to working with them over this year.

This week saw the launch of the CCA programme, with over 80 different activities running for students to participate in and over 300 students staying each evening to get involved. If your child hasn't yet had the opportunity to try an activity from the offer, keep encouraging them - there is something for everyone to enjoy. There have also been a number of notable sporting fixtures, with some students even competing against Sixth Form students with success, really fulfilling our 'game-changer' ethos.

Next week, Mr Stromdale will be leading assemblies with students across school, introducing them to our "learning modes". The 4 learning modes are - Independent Study, Quiet Partners, Quality Audience and Polite Groups. These will be used by teachers, during lessons, to explain which learning behaviours will allow students to make the maximum progress with their learning at that point. We know that students have had a disrupted classroom experience and these learning modes have been designed to create consistency and predictability to the classroom environment for our students.

Finally, there are a couple of dates to remind you of:

- Friday 22nd September - INSET day
- Thursday 28th September - Early Close (13:05) for Open Evening

I hope you and your families have an enjoyable weekend and we look forward to welcoming everyone back on Monday.
