

Callous

Adjective

Someone who is harsh, cold, unfeeling

Use this word correctly in your work in any subject this week for a House Point.

Synonyms

- Heartless
- Unfeeling
- Unempathetic
- Miserly

Sentences containing the adjective 'callous:'

- He was a dictator who showed callous disregard for the rest of society.
- The prisoner was sentenced to life for his callous crime.
- To not help people who are suffering with the cost of living crisis, seems callous and immoral.

Antonyms

- Kind
- Compassionate
- Sympathetic

Callous

Adjective

Someone who is harsh, cold, unfeeling

Reflect!

Can you think of any famous callous leaders or someone who abused their power?

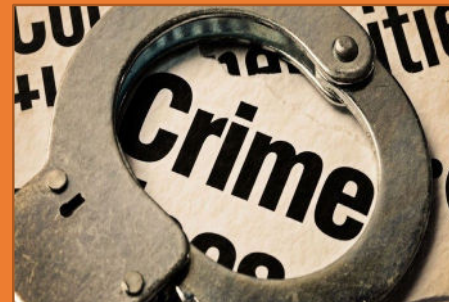

What makes them callous? Discuss.

Discuss:

What would you constitute as being the most callous type of crime? And why?

What factors do you need to consider?

Languages!

French: insensible

Spanish: insensible

Debate!

Are people born callous?
Or is this a learn behaviour or a result of their upbringing and other factors?