

Compose

Verb

to create or write something

Use this word correctly in your work in any subject this week for a House Point.

Synonyms

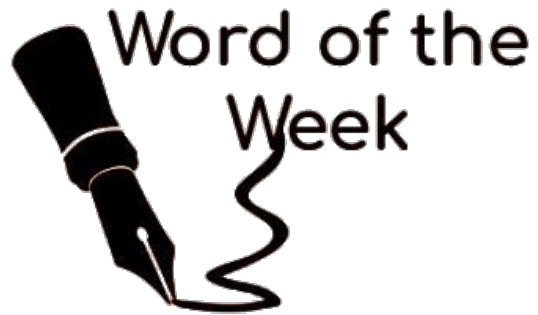

- Devise
- Write
- Create
- Invent

Antonyms

- Dismantle
- Deconstruct
- Obliterate

Sentences containing the verb 'compose':

- She had to compose a piece of music for her GCSE coursework.
- After the teacher's initial input the children went on to compose their own poems.
- He composed his speech from many research notes.

Compose

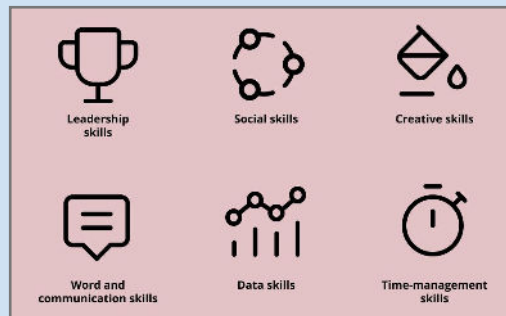

Verb

To create or write something

What skills are required to compose something?

Why are these skills important?

Can you think of an example of something that you can compose?

Alternative Meanings -

What does it mean to compose yourself?

In what situation might you be required to be composed?

Languages!

French: composer

Spanish: escribir

Mandarin: 撰写 zhuan xie

Morphology:

From Latin componere

Co - together

Ponere - to put, place.