

Distort

Verb

give a misleading or false account or impression of.

Use this word correctly in your work in any subject this week for a House Point.

Synonyms

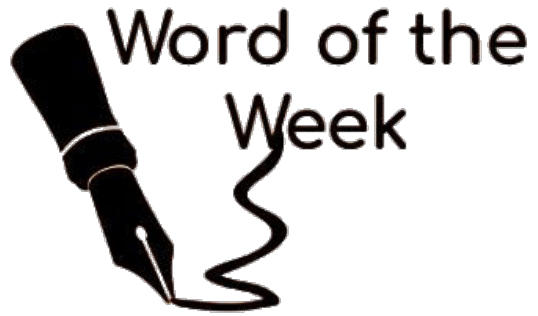

- Employ
- Use
- Apply

Sentences containing the verb 'distort':

- Many factors can distort the results.
- The media distorts reality; categorises people as all good or all bad.
- This caused the sound to distort.

Antonyms

- Release
- Refuse
- Disregard

Word of the Week

Distort

Verb

give a misleading or false account or impression of.

Reflect!

How and why does the media distort our vision of truth?

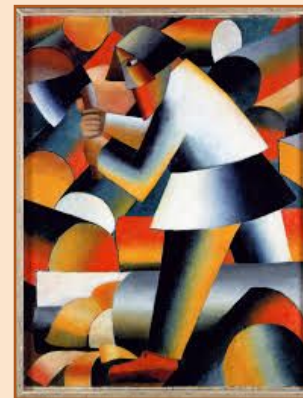

Can you think of examples from both social media or in printed media how reality is distorted?

The Telegraph

Curriculum Link! Art

In art, the term distortion is used to describe any change made by an artist to the shape, size or visual character of a form to express an idea, convey a feeling or enhance visual impact.

Languages!

French: déformer

Spanish: distorsionar

How does VR distort reality?

What does this suggest about the future of technology?

