

Liberal

Adjective

willing to respect or accept behaviour or opinions different from one's own; open to new ideas.

Use this word correctly in your work in any subject this week for a House Point.

Synonyms

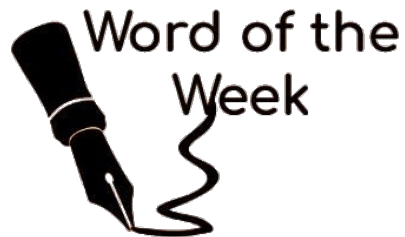

- Tolerant
- Open-minded
- Unbiased

Sentences containing the adjective 'liberal:'

- She is known be liberal when arguing her ideas.
- As a society we have become more liberal and tolerant of others.
- To work in politics, you need to demonstrate an ability to be liberal.

Antonyms

- Narrow-minded
- Bigoted
- Intolerant

Liberal

Adjective

willing to respect or accept behaviour or opinions different from one's own; open to new ideas.

Consider:

Should people always be free to make their own choices?

Where should limits be placed on freedom?

Discuss:

Why is it important that as a society we are liberal?

What would happen to our society if people lacked liberal qualities?

Languages!

French: libéral

Spanish: liberal

Mandarin: 自由的

Aspire!

Can you think of any leaders who have shown an ability to be liberal?

Were they a successful leader? Why/why not?