Teacher of Psychology

Salary: MPS/UPS

Start Date: January 2027

Full Time; Permanent

Join Our Team

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, committed and inspirational Teacher of Psychology to join our Humanities Faculty on a full-time, permanent basis.

This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious teacher to join our school community and play a key role in delivering a high-quality Psychology curriculum that inspires curiosity, develops critical thinking and enables every student to achieve their full potential.

We are looking for a teacher who is passionate about their subject, committed to excellent teaching and learning, and eager to contribute to the wider life and culture of the school.

Our school is committed to ensuring that every student can Enjoy, Respect and Achieve throughout their education. The successful candidate will share these values and demonstrate a strong commitment to supporting students' academic, personal and social development.

The Role

The successful candidate will:

- Teach Psychology across Key Stages [3, 4, and/or 5 as applicable]
- Plan and deliver engaging, high-quality lessons that foster curiosity about the world
- Assess, monitor, and support student progress effectively
- Contribute to curriculum development within the Psychology department
- Play an active role in the wider life of the school

The Ideal Candidate Will:

- Be a qualified teacher (QTS or equivalent)
- Have strong subject knowledge and a passion for Psychology
- Be committed to inclusive teaching and high expectations for all students
- Demonstrate excellent classroom management and communication skills
- Be willing to collaborate with colleagues and engage in professional development

We offer

- A supportive and collaborative working environment
- Well-behaved, motivated students who are keen to learn
- Opportunities for professional growth and career progression
- Access to high-quality CPD and mentoring

The successful candidate will be subject to pre-employment checks, including enhanced DBS checks and satisfactory references.
